This is to certify that the documents attached as supporting documents for Criterion VII: Institutional Values and Best Practices are verified from the college record and found to be correct to the best of my knowledge.

Arts & Commerce College Warvat Bakal Dist.Buldana Our institute takes great pride in commemorating a rich tapestry of significant events and observances throughout the academic year. These celebrations serve as poignant reminders of our nation's history, values, and the remarkable individuals who have shaped its course. From the fervent patriotism of Independence Day and Republic Day to the profound teachings of Mahatma Gandhi on his birth anniversary, we weave a narrative of reverence and appreciation for the sacrifices made by our forefathers in the pursuit of freedom and justice. National Science Day stands as a beacon of scientific inquiry and innovation, inspiring our students to explore the frontiers of knowledge and contribute to the advancement of humanity. International Women's Day, a day of empowerment and recognition, provides a platform for celebrating the achievements and potential of our female students, while also advocating for gender equity and inclusivity in all spheres of life. Our institute also pays homage to the legacy of renowned figures such as Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, Savitribai Phule, Swami Vivekananda, Shivaji Maharaj, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, and S.R. Ranganathan, whose ideals and teachings continue to resonate with successive generations. Through a diverse array of activities including guest lectures, workshops, competitions, and community service initiatives, we nurture a culture of holistic development and social responsibility among our students. These celebrations not only foster a deep sense of pride in our cultural heritage and national identity but also instill in our students the values of unity, integrity, and compassion that are essential for building a harmonious and prosperous society. As we come together to honor these special occasions, we reaffirm our commitment to shaping future leaders who will uphold these timeless values and contribute positively to the world around them.
